

GRATEFULS

Mom asks me a question every night
Before she kisses me
And shuts the light
And I like it because it makes me glad
To think about
All that I have

What made you grateful in your day?
What made your worries melt away?
Was there something that put joy in your heart?
Tell me, what was the best part?

I think about it a moment
She tucks me in
And I reply

Well I'm grateful for my shoes
And for all my fake tattoos
I'm grateful for my big stuffed bear
And for the pink that's in my hair

I'm grateful for my mom
And when I hear my favorite song
I'm grateful for my little bro
And for chocolate chip cookie dough

I'm grateful for my toys
And for making lots of noise
I'm grateful I can sing
I can be grateful for everything

Well you know
I'm grateful
Now you know
I'm grateful

Then mom she stands up from the bed
Gives me a kiss upon the head
And she says that no matter what you do
I'm always grateful for you too
She hits the light
Shuts the door
I think about it a little more
I'm such a crazy lucky kid
Just realizing that...

I'm grateful for my shoes
And for all my fake tattoos
I'm grateful for my big stuffed bear
And for the pink that's in my hair

I'm grateful for my dad

And that he stopped saying "rad"
I'm grateful for the roof above
And that I've done things I'm proud of

I'm grateful for my toys
And for making lots of noise
That narwhals are a thing
I'm grateful for everything

Well you know I'm grateful
Now you know I'm grateful
Well you know I'm grateful
Now you know I'm grateful
